Before training, the partner says a steered concept most often when the partner's layer-27 state is closest to the concept

