Before training to read steering, the partner says a concept most often when the partner's layer-27 state shifts furthest toward the concept

